

Wednesday 11 November 2026 | 14:30 – 18:15

“Skills for Future 2040”

in International Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid Skills, Professional Profiles and Career Opportunities

Presentation of the study conducted by
Social Change School – Career Development Service

Hosted by  EMERGENCY in Via Santa Croce 19, Milan.

Participation available also online.

Programme

14:30 Welcome from the host – Rossella Miccio, President Emergency.

14.45 Culture, People & Skills for the Third Sector 2040 by Marco Crescenzi, Social Change School, Leaders4Future.

15:05 Presentation of the survey "Skills for Future 2040 in International Cooperation and Humanitarian Aid" designed by Bruno Clerici, Career Development Service, Social Change School.

15:45 Coffee Break

16.00 Job4Good, Diego Maria Ierna: Key Data and Trends to Inform the Discussion.

16.15 Info-Cooperazione, Elias Gerovasi: “Emerging professional profiles in the international cooperation and humanitarian aid sector”

16.30 Scomodo Impresa Sociale, Livia Riparbelli: “Young People and Careers in NGOs and International Cooperation: Motivations and Barriers.”

16.40 Round table Directors and HR.

Emergency, Marco Spesso (HR Senior Advisor, Executive Coach, Leadership Development Expert) - Save the Children, Matteo Sollazzo HR Development Advisor - CESVI, Marcelo Garcia Dalla Costa, (Head of Emergency Response and Humanitarian Aid Unit at CESVI) - Mission Bambini, Stefano Oltolini (General Director Mission Bambini) L4F Spain.

17.30 Open floor discussion and Q&A.

18.15 Conclusions – Marco Crescenzi.

Registration
Free admission - Limited in-person seats
CLICK HERE!